INTERPRETING

Interpreting Services are the translation sector requiring the greatest degree of professional preparation

- Interpreting involves translating under conditions of enormous pressure. There is no possibility of correction let alone proof-reading, making interpreting a delicate task with no room for error, reliant on empathetic communication skill and the utmost precision.
- Reliability is all about detail. We request flexibility and 24h availability from our interpreters. At least two professionals are selected for each job, to ensure coverage in case of any type of emergency, even at the last minute
- Expert and prepared interpreters. A Project Manager is assigned to the job and takes care of the entire selection process, identifying the most suitable professionals for the type of request and situation at hand: the best qualified in terms of language combinations, subject matter and specific requirements.
- Complete Support. In addition to interpreters, we also provide all types of support services, including devices, cabins and sound systems.

MANUALS

Adding value to machinery and products, we offer complete support from preparation to translation

The advantages of entrusting your technical documentation to Nexo Corporation

- Sales and export. The quality of a technical manual, complete with a clear and correct translation, is a decisive factor in many fields, especially for equipment, machinery and technologies destined for foreign markets and export.
- Satisfaction for manufacturers and clients. Manuals are a substantial part of product construction. More than a simple business card, good quality technical documentation facilitates use and simplifies after-sales assistance.
- Risk prevention for users and company liability The purpose of any technical manual is to convey effective information and ensuring operator safety. At the same time, manufacturing companies avoid the risk of heavy fines.
- Software for Manuals. Thanks to their use, we create the perfect manual, the only one capable of displaying functionality, methods of use and every precaution necessary to approach a machine and an instrument to the best of its functionality.

COMMUNICATION

Communication strategies for a world without boundaries. innovation and digital marketing to embrace business objectives and generate concrete economic results.

- There is no such thing as a 'one size fits all' strategy which is equally effective for all businesses. Digital communication must be tailored to each client. This involves assessing their objectives, their offer, their internal and budget capacities.
- It is important to create a winning mix. Emerge, set yourself apart from the rest, characterise yourself and gain recognition. These are the only rules for cultivating relations, acquiring new B2B and B2C clients, maximising profits and reaching out onto new international markets.
- Customisation, data and targeting. Data analysis helps you find out more about users, their tastes and behaviours, so that you can create high precision and targeted communication, capable of intercepting the right people in the right way and at exactly the right moment.
- Selecting a translation provider with solid experience in the digital field is a strategically decisive choice for leveraging the immense potential of the internet, the production and distribution of digital contents and online communication.
